

GYTS is a nationally representative school-based survey of students aged 13-15 years using a standard core questionnaire, sample design, and data collection and management procedures that were ...

This report and data analysis were prepared by Robert M. Carney, Research, Monitoring and Evaluation Officer, Ministry of Health Samoa and is based on the 2017GYTS findings in Samoa.

The Global Youth Tobacco Survey (GYTS) is a school-based survey that monitors tobacco use among youth to guide the implementation and evaluation of tobacco prevention and control programs.

GYTS uses a global standardized methodology that includes a two-stage sample design with schools selected with a probability proportional to enrollment size. The classes within selected ...

Publications of the World Health Organization

The American Samoa GYTS includes data on prevalence of cigarette and other tobacco use as well as information on five determinants of tobacco use: access/availability and price, exposure to ...

Designed as standardized tool to collect data on tobacco use among youth in countries around the globe, the GYTS is a school-based survey of students aged 13-15 years.

Gyts Samoa Single-Model and Multi-Model

Web: <https://csc-energia.com.pl>